Foreword

Experience is the basis of all poetry. Our life here at Mt. St. Macrina Academy is like a great didactic poem made up of humor, pathos, friendship, and joy. Recognition of this has brought about the selection of "Poetry of Life" as the theme of the 1962 MACRINITE.

Moving as rapidly as the pace of today's living or as leisurely as the grains of sand sifting through the hourglass, the tempo of these experiences afforded us many hours of joy, mental stimulation, and relaxation.

As it can be said that every girl's life is her unique poem, so can a school be said to contribute to the "Poetry of Life."

Our Faculty

Dedication

To Our Devoted Faculty

The graduating class of 1962 wish to dedicate this edition of THE MACRINITE to you, our beloved faculty, who have put forth your tireless efforts in our behalf. A simple "thank you" seems inadequate for your patience and understanding throughout our high school years.

It was only through your continuous and unselfish efforts that our years at Mount St. Macrina have proven fruitful.

REV. JULIAN M. GNALL, O. S. B.
Chaplain; Religious Instructor; Spiritual Adviser

Our chaplain and spiritual adviser, Father Julian, O. S. B., is a friendly and self-sacrificing Benedictine, to whom each girl may look for spiritual guidance and direction. With his teachings and exhortations we are now prepared to face life as good Catholic women.

REV. MOTHER M. DANIEL, O. S. B. M.
Provincial Superior

We are thankful to Mother Daniel for the kind assistance and understanding that she has shown to us during our stay here at the Mount.

The many favors she has rendered us will never be forgotten.

Guidance IV, Senior Moderator

Realizing that in youth's hands lies the future, the faculty of Mt. St. Macrina Academy has dedicated itself to providing opportunities for the students to develop themselves in the spirit of Christ while engaged in the many tasks and undertakings of the ordinary day. As we approach the threshold of new experiences, we can meet them without fear because of the sincere interest of the Sisters of St. Basil.
